Significant Activities:

- On Saturday, October 6, 2018, dayshift officers responded to a large party that was being held at 636 NE 117 St. The homeowner rented his residence on Airbnb and contracted a promoter to sanction the event. The event consisted of approximately 300 to 350 party goers, DJ, security guards, and a valet company. The event, which was operating without a Village permit, was shortly closed in an orderly and law-abiding fashion. Police Department is still investigating the incident and civil penalties are pending.
- On Thursday, October 11, 2018, a complainant responded to the police station and alleged that someone has been entering his vehicle for the last couple of months and pouring some unknown type of liquid on his car seats, which caused stains. There were no indications observed of any force entry made to the vehicle.
